

Batteries		FULL Sealed or Pressurized Containers
☐ Lithium-ion batteries - o Power tools, household electronics, e-bikes, electric vehicles, laptops, phones, vapes, etc. ☐ Loose or damaged batteries of any kind		☐ Gas cylinders - o Oxygen, acetylene, helium, argon, etc. ☐ Propane tanks ☐ Aerosol cans and spray paint cans ☐ Any container under pressure or that cannot be verified as empty
Hazardous or Flammable Materials		Electronic Waste
☐ Gasoline, diesel, oil, antifreeze, or solvents ☐ Paints, stains, thinners, or any chemicals ☐ Grease traps or oil-filled machinery not properly drained ☐ Fuel tanks or oil drums (unless punctured and completely empty)		☐ Televisions ☐ Computer monitors ☐ CRT screens ☐ Servers or hard drives with data still stored
Radioactive Materials		Medical or Biohazard Waste
☐ Smoke detectors with radioactive components ☐ Industrial gauges or devices containing isotopes ☐ Any material marked with radiation symbols ☐ Any equipment used for radiology		☐ Needles, syringes, or sharps ☐ Medical equipment ☐ Any item containing blood or biological contamination
Asbestos and PCB-containing Items		Explosives or Ammunition
☐ Insulation materials (if not verified asbestos-free) ☐ Old capacitors, ballasts, or transformers with PCBs ☐ Electrical components from pre-1979 equipment		☐ Fireworks ☐ Live ammunition or shell casings ☐ Detonators, blasting caps, or similar items
Mercury-Containing Devices		Miscellaneous Prohibited Item
☐ Thermostats ☐ Switches ☐ Thermometers ☐ Fluorescent light bulbs		☐ Vehicles with fuel, batteries, or fluids still inside ☐ Shopping carts (unless accompanied by proof of ownership) ☐ Wet or moldy materials ☐ Trash, household garbage, or municipal waste ☐ Non-metallic materials including dirt, concrete, rocks, wood, glass, plastics, rags, or furniture	